Review: This is an absolutely Must Read for everyone! Yes, it concerns an area most would like to ignore completely, but everyone has to face death at some time. Are you ready? This book is a good guide for planning, as well as a story of a small undertaker's wife, raised on a farm, has a master's in theology, and can play the organ or preach at a funeral. She tells many wonderful stories of a funeral home which is also their home, the many who come through the doors. What I really appreciated were the many appendices containing useful information from death certificate information, to financial methods and resources, and an outline of a celebration of life. It just has so much information about what you need to know and do, I almost feel like everyone should have their own copy.
